Regulations – Organization of Congresses
Regulations – Organization of Congresses

Objectives

• Release the Groups from unaffordable responsibilities
  ➢ Risk of a financial loss by the Host Group
  ➢ Complex and time-consuming organizational obligations and activities by the Host Group

• Take full advantage of the General Secretariat (GS) expertise
Regulations – Organization of Congresses

Principles

• The Host Group:
  – A Congress Coordination Committee (CCC) having a board of up to 5 members, including an ex-officio member designated by the Bureau, which acts as an advisory board for issues where local support or advice is helpful or needed
  – Proposes venues for the social events and local activities
  – Identifies local sponsors and exhibitors
  – Promotes local attendance at the Congress
  – Identifies potential speakers and topics to be approved by the Bureau
  – No financial responsibility: all losses if any are for AIPPI

• The Bureau:
  – through the Secretary General, using the General Secretariat, may rely on professional support (PCO), but the Bureau is responsible for the overall Congress arrangements (e.g. dates, programme, budget, etc.), the CCC being consulted for issues linked to the local particulars
  – through the Reporter General, is responsible for the Professional Development Programme (e.g. topics, speakers, etc.), the CCC being consulted where local support or advice is helpful or needed
Regulations – Organization of Congresses

Finances

• Losses if any are for AIPPI
• The Bureau is responsible for the budget
• Work of the General Secretariat reasonably attributable to the Congress will be charged to the budget
• The Host Group will receive 10% of any final profit of the Congress
• The Host Group will in addition receive 15% of the sponsorship revenue from sponsors provided by it
Regulations – Organization of Congresses

Transitory Provisions

• For congresses 2017 to 2022
• To be negotiated with Host Groups
Regulations – Organization of Congresses

Process

• Collect comments during the Congress
• Continue according to the procedure for a vote by correspondence to change the Regulations
• Hold a vote by correspondence at a later time