- 9.6 The Bureau shall conduct the external relations of the Association. It has the power to engage in consultations, discussions and collaborations with governmental and non-governmental organisations and third parties, so as to achieve the purposes of the Association. It may delegate such duties to the extent it deems fit to any person(s) within the Enlarged Bureau or a committee of the Association or the Executive Director, as it may choose.

The Bureau shall take the necessary steps to give effect to the decisions, Resolutions, and recommendations of the Association.

- 9.7 In cases of necessity, the Bureau may take any action in the name of the Association. "A case of necessity" shall be understood as one authorising the Bureau to respond to any invitation to submit comments to any consultation by a governmental organization or a non-governmental organization concerning matters of substantive intellectual property law, procedure or practice, where such is required within a short time frame when there is no established AIPPI position.

- 9.8 The Bureau may appoint and dissolve Standing and Initiative Committees and other committees as appropriate in the exercise of its powers. The Bureau has the power to appoint all members of Standing and Initiative Committees and other committees based on nominations made by National or Regional Groups, or by Independent Members. The Bureau has the power to appoint additional members to the Initiative Committees and to appoint the leadership of the Standing and Initiative Committees from their members.

- 9.9 The Bureau may issue, amend and revoke the Protocols governing the Bureau, the Committees appointed according to Article 9.8 and other topics related to the administration of the Association.

- 9.10 The Bureau shall convene and organise the General Assembly and the meetings of the Executive Committee and prepare the agendas thereof. It may organise other meetings of the Association and determine their agenda as may be decided by the Bureau from time to time.

- 9.11 The working methods of the Bureau and the allocation of duties and powers of the individual members of the Bureau shall be laid down by the Bureau. The Bureau is entitled to delegate any of its duties to one or more of the Enlarged Bureau members.

The Secretary General shall be responsible for the administration and the organization of activities of the Association in cooperation with the Deputy Secretaries General. The Secretary General shall also be responsible for the fostering of relationships with the National and Regional Groups, the Independent Members, the Statutory Committees (with the exception of the Programme Committee), the Initiative Committees and other committees, and shall work with them to fulfil their duties and responsibilities in compliance with the Statutes, Regulations and relevant protocols of the Association.

The Reporter General shall be responsible for directing the studies and discussions of the Association and for reporting thereon in cooperation with the Deputy Reporters General. The Reporter General shall also be responsible for the operation and management of the Standing Committees in compliance with relevant Protocols, and shall be responsible for fostering the relationship with the Programme Committee.

The Treasurer General shall be responsible for the management of the finances and of the accounts of the Association, including budget preparation and control and monitoring of commercial bookkeeping and accounting, auditing and financial administration.

Article 10 - Presidency

President and Vice-President

- 10.1 The President shall be the head of the Association and the Bureau and shall act as a first among equals. As head of the Bureau he/she shall chair Bureau meetings, and lead the Association based on decisions taken by the Bureau consistent with the decisions of the Executive Committee and the objects of the Association. The President shall be the formal representative of the Association.
- 10.2 The First Vice-President shall be the deputy to the President and in the absence of the President shall act in his/her place.
- 10.3 The Second Vice-President shall be the Deputy to the First Vice-President in the event that the President is absent, and the First Vice-President is acting in the President's place according to article 10.2.

Article 11 – Statutory Committees

- 11.1 Each Statutory Committee shall be composed of a Chairperson and other members elected by the Executive Committee. Each Statutory Committee shall have Terms of Reference setting out its objectives, role, and responsibilities.

Programme Committee

- 11.2 The Programme Committee shall be the research organ of the Association and shall, in consultation with the Bureau, make proposals regarding aspects of the annual work programme including Study Questions and panel sessions.

Nominating Committee

- 11.3 The Nominating Committee shall, in consultation with the Bureau, propose to the Executive Committee a list of candidates for their election to fill any vacancy(ies) in any elective positions.

Finance Committee

- 11.4 The Finance Committee shall exercise the function of internal controller. It shall review the budget and financial performance of the Association and shall report its findings and comments on future budgets and financial planning annually to the Executive Committee.

Membership Committee

- 11.5 The Membership Committee shall represent the interests of all members within the Association. The Committee shall monitor, comment upon and advise the Bureau in respect of matters affecting members and for the enhancement of the value of the Association to the members.

Communications Committee

- 11.6 The Communications Committee shall assess and review the publications of the Association, as may be required. The Communications Committee shall be responsible for liaising with and guiding the National Regional Group and IM Reporters to enhance the contributions from the National and Regional Groups and Independent Members. The Committee shall monitor, provide commentary and advise the Bureau on matters related to empowering communication channels within and outside of the Association.

Venue Selection Committee

- 11.7 The Venue Selection Committee together with the Bureau and General Secretariat shall be responsible for proposing the venue(s) for the AIPPI World Congress.

Article 12 – Standing Committees

- 12.1 All Standing Committees are governed by a common Protocol that provides for the membership, role and responsibilities thereof and additional separate Terms of Reference relating to a particular area of intellectual property law or particular topics relevant to intellectual property or emerging areas and new developments relevant to intellectual property.

Article 13 – Initiative Committees

- 13.1 Initiative Committees shall be governed by a common Protocol that provides for the membership, role and responsibilities thereof and additional separate Terms of Reference relating to subjects aligned with the objectives of the Association.

Article 14 – Other Committees

- 14.1 The Bureau may appoint and dissolve other committees to comment and advise the Bureau on matters relevant to its power and duties or other specific issue(s) on which the Bureau requires advice.

Article 15 - Financial Responsibility

- 15.1 The Association shall assume financial responsibility for commitments entered into by the Bureau within the scope of its powers.

Article 16 - Audit and Finance

- 16.1 The accounting period shall be the calendar year.
- 16.2 The financial operations of the Association shall be audited by one or more independent Auditors. The Auditor or Auditors shall verify the annual accounts of the Association and submit to the Executive Committee an auditing report. The Report shall include a recommendation of release or non-release of persons and bodies in respect of financial responsibilities.
- 16.3 The Treasurer General shall make available to the Finance Committee on a timely basis the necessary budget and financial information of the Association.

Article 17 - Subscriptions

- 17.1 The National and Regional Groups shall pay subscriptions annually to the Association on behalf of each of their members.
- 17.2 Independent Members shall pay their subscription annually directly to the Association.

Article 18 - Documentation and Speeches - Languages

- 18.1 The documents of the Association shall be published in English. Translations into French, German, Spanish and such other languages as the Bureau decides to admit, prepared by the National or Regional Groups and approved by the Bureau, shall be added to the English publications on the AIPPI website. Documents, which aim to promote the Association, shall be published in English and such other languages as the Bureau deems appropriate, having regard to the culture and language of the target group.
- 18.2 As a rule, English shall be the language used by the participants in meetings of all bodies of the Association, with the exception of General Assemblies, and sessions of the Executive Committee. Members of the Bureau and Chairpersons of Committees shall as a rule speak English in all meetings.

In General Assemblies, and sessions of the Executive Committee, participants may present interventions in English, French, German, Spanish and such additional languages, including the language of the host country, as the Bureau decides to permit for a given meeting keeping in mind the importance of the language, its contribution to the visibility of AIPPI and the communication with participants and guests, and costs.

As a rule, interpretation into English shall be provided for interventions in such permitted languages. The organizing committees of AIPPI World Congress may decide to provide for simultaneous interpretation into the language of the host country if such interpretation is likely to significantly increase participation.

Article 19 - Liability

- 19.1 The Association is solely responsible for its debts and obligations, which are guaranteed by its assets, to the exclusion of all individual responsibility of its members.
- 19.2 The members of the Enlarged Bureau and of other bodies of the Association do not have any individual liability.

Article 20 - Amendments of Statutes and Dissolution of the Association

- 20.1 Amendments to these Statutes and dissolution of the Association shall require a vote of the General Assembly under Article 6.5 or 6.6 respectively, upon a resolution passed by the Executive Committee and placed upon the agenda, the latter being sent to members in accordance with the Regulations.
- 20.2 After dissolution of the Association, the remaining funds shall be transferred to a tax exempt institution domiciled in Switzerland, which pursues similar objects to those of the Association. A distribution among the members of the Association is prohibited.

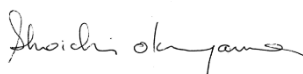

Article 21 - Transition provision

This version of the Statutes comes into effect after adoption by the General Assembly. The date, programme and other arrangements of future AIPPI annual meetings for which the invitation has been accepted by the Executive Committee before the date of adoption of this version of the Statutes shall be fixed in accordance with either the scheme of the AIPPI annual meeting valid on the date of the acceptance of the invitation or the scheme of the AIPPI annual meeting valid under this version of the Statutes, following the choice of the inviting National or Regional Group.
