

AIPPI CONGRESS RIO DE JANEIRO

October 10 - 14, 2015

Panel Session IX

ISP liability a run-down on take-downs (and more)

Wednesday, October 14, 2015

08.30 - 10.00

Speaker:

Cláudio Lins de Vasconcelos

(Brazil)

Curriculum Vitae

Cláudio Lins de Vasconcelos

Cláudio Lins de Vasconcelos, founding partner of Lins de Vasconcelos Advogados, is director-reporter of the Brazilian Intellectual Property Association – ABPI and vice-president of the Rio de Janeiro Bar Association's Copyright and Entertainment Law Commission. He holds a Juris Science Doctor degree – JSD from the Rio de Janeiro State University – UERJ and a Master of Laws degree – LL.M from the University of Notre Dame. Among other positions, he has served as a consultant to the World Bank Inspection Panel and as assistant advisor of international affairs to the Brazilian Ministry of Justice. He is a lecturer in the Master of Laws program of the Brazilian Industrial Property Institute – INPI and in the Intellectual Property Law postgraduate program of Rio de Janeiro Catholic University. He has published a number of articles and other works in Brazil and abroad, being the author of the book “Media and Intellectual Property: The Chronicle of a Changing Model”.