

London 2019

Lunch Session 3: Africa and Innovation

This engaging lunch session focused on innovation in Africa will feature four inspiring and award-winning innovators from around Africa who will each present the highlights of their work. Based on these examples of innovation and entrepreneurship in four different fields and geographical regions, a broader discussion will follow on the business and innovation climate in Africa and the core role played by intellectual property.