Protecting Your IP Overseas: WIPO Services and Initiatives

Sign up for our free Roving Seminar

2019
November 27, 2019
DPMA, Zweibrückenstraße 12, 80331 München, DPMA forum from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Are you looking to take your business overseas but not sure how to protect your intellectual property (IP) rights? Or do you represent businesses and want to hear about the latest developments in global IP systems? Then sign up to attend the Roving Seminar on WIPO services and initiatives, to be held in Munich, on November 27, 2019.

In this event, senior representatives from the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) will lead an interactive program of discussions that are sure to be of interest to anyone involved in the international protection of IP rights.

The event will provide an introduction to WIPO services and initiatives, including international systems for the protection of IP rights, alternative dispute resolution and infrastructure for the exchange of IP information. There will be plenty of opportunity for debate and discussion, as well as interaction with the German Patent and Trade Mark Office and local business representatives.

In order to register your interest, please fill out the registration form available here: https://www.dpma.de/dpma/veranstaltungen/wipo_roving_2019/anmeldung/index.html

DPMA Main Building is near the Isar river. There is no parking available and use of public transportation is highly recommended. Please use one of the following options: suburban train (S-Bahn) to ‘Isartor’ station and three minute walk; tram No. 16 or 17 to ‘Isartor’ station or bus No. 132 to ‘Isartor/Zweibrückenstrasse’.
